BRIEFS.

Wheat is quoted at $1.50 a bushel today and corn is 83 cents.

For Sale—Dark bay horse colt, coming two years. Percheron stock. A. C. Kensill. For sale, at a bargain, a stylish rubber-tire runabout, used very little. Mrs. J. E.

Triplett. Just arrived for you—for your best girl
-What! Norris' exquisite candies. At Owens & Miller's only. Best in choco-

Wanted, good fat hogs for butchering for which the highest cash price will be paid. Apply to C. C. Frazier, Shepherds-

Certainly am glad I tried Owens & Mil-ler's liver salts. Fine for sick headaches, dizziness, etc. You ought to try a bottle only 25 cents. Mrs. Bernie Billmyer has given up the idea of renting her dwelling here and moving to Hagerstown. She will remain at her home at the edge of town.

The Mission Band will serve old-fashioned chicken soup, icecream and homemade candy in the Sunday school room at Duftields on Saturday of this week, beginning at 5 o'clock.

Summit Point was destroyed by fire, with all its contents, Wednesday night of last week. The loss was about $1,500, nearly covered by insurance. The regular jury term of the Jefferson Circuit Court is called for Tuesday, October 17th, when the grand jury will convene. The petit jury will not be called until Tuesday, the 24th. Mrs. J. W. Fadeley, of Halltown, was bitten by a horse and painfully injured last week. The horse became frightened at a passing train, and in trying to quiet the animal she was bitten. Born to Rev. and Mrs. Ashlin White in Henderson, N. C., on Saturday, Sep tember 30, twins, a son and a daughter Mrs. White was Miss Pleasants Hopkins, of Charles Town, before marriage. Someone on last Saturday picked up by mistake a tent tlv that was lying on the roadside in front of my orchard on the Billmyer's Mill road. Will the finder kindly return it to me? J. D. Muldoon. At a meeting in Martinsburg last Friday of the creditors of H. E. Mundey, of Shepherdstown, who recently applied for the benefit of the bankrupt laws, T.

C. Green, of Charles Town, was selected Mrs. G. W. Banks informs us that she found a good-sized bloom on her snowball bush a few days ago. This is a very unusual occurrence and must be an omen of some sort. We suspect it means that Hughes has no show.

H. L. Snyder & Co. have for sale a very desirable little tarm of 25 acres about two miles from Shepherdstown, which will be sold at a reasonable price. Inquire for particulars at once, as this will probably not be on the market very long.

Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, will be at the Hagerstown fair next Tuesday afternoon. will reach the city about 2 o'clock, and after being escorted over the fair grounds will make an address in front of the grand

The always popular Hagerstown fair will be held next week, October 10th to 14th, and in addition to the usual exhibit during the day there will be a fine display i ireworks each night. The Norfolk & Western Railway will run the usual ex

The house on the Starry farm, now owned by W. C. Clipp and occupied by Walter Tumblin and family, near Charles lown, was destroyed by fire with all of its contents last Saturday night, Mr. Tumlin's family being away at the time.

The Vanvactor farm of 90 acres located on the Shenandoah river, one mile south of the Bloomery, and which was sold two onths ago under a decree of the Circuit Court to C. F. Wall, has changed owners again. Mr. Wall has sold it to John P. dissler, of Mechanicstown, at $65 per acre

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Owens attended he funeral of Mrs. Owens' mother, Mrs. C. Akers, in Keyser, W. Va., las being made in our last issue. Mrs. Akers was 71 years of age, and is survived by six sons and five daughters. Mr. Akers died last February.

The Jefferson County Sunday School Convention will be held in Harper's Ferry on Thursday and Friday, October 19th and 20th. It is hoped that every Sunday school in the county will be represented and that the people generally will attend. The programme is now being arranged and will be published later. B. S. Pendleton has gotten in some nice new post-card views of places of nterest in Shepherdstown. Among them are the beautiful Rumsey monument, St. Peter's Lutheran Church and the passenger bridge over the Potomac river. Mr. Pendleton has our thanks for a generous quantity of the post-cards. It is announced that a suffrage meeting will be held on Saturday evening of this week at "The Cottage," the home of Mr. Raleigh Dunaway, at Leetown, when a number of persons will make brief ad-Everybody is invited to be present. The speaking will take place from the porches at "The Cottage."

Two cases of infantile paralysis have been discovered in Martinsburg, both of the victims being colored children. A six-year-old child of Ben Holland, on Tuscarora street, and a three-year-old child of Ann Harris, on Madison avenue, ave the disease. The health officers have put them under strict quarantine.

The National Highway Garage building a large addition to its extensive plant at the corner of Princess and Washington streets. The new structure will e 42 by 80 feet in size two stories high. The second story will be used as a machine room, with approach on a level from the rear. The first floor will be devoted to storage room, except for the front part, in which will be the office and

The 48th annual meeting of the Shepherdstown Branch of the American Bible ociety will be held in the Shepherd Colege auditorium Sunday evening, October 8th, at 7 o'clock. Rev. S. L. Flickinger, of the Reformed Church, will preach the sermon. All of the churches of the town will, as usual, unite in this service, and everybody is invited to attend. A sacred concert with selections on the Victrola will be given between 6.30 and 7 o'clock.

H. A. Line will on Sunday start his auto bus line between Shepherdstown absence of the mother that Keith rose and Hagerstown, and will make two and fell backward into the canal. The round trips daily thereafter between these two places. The first car leaves here at seeing her son sinking, jumped into the 8.15 a. m., arriving in Hagerstown at 9.40; water, which is ten feet deep at that spot. the second leaves at 6.15 p. m., arriving at | Both disappeared after a brief struggle, 7.30. Returning, cars leave Hagerstown at 4 and 10.30 p. m. Cars leave and arrive at the Rumsey Hotel in Shepherdstown and the public square in Hagers-work with plans that it is hoped will make Washington county dry at the election in November. A big meeting is being arranged for Saturday night, October 14th, in Red Men's hall in that town, when H. Snyder will make an address and the Shepherdstown Chorus, under the di-rection of Prof. J. D. Muldoon, will furopen saloon.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. Walter H. Show, of Kimball, W. Va., spent a few days in Shepherdstown the past week, having met his sister, Mrs. Green, in Cincinnati, and accompanied her to Charles Town. Mr. Show has been living in the wild and woolly by the second to be a great change in Mc-Dowell county this fall, for hundreds of men who have been Republicans are go-ing to vote for Woodrow Wilson and the of the State have never been as hopeful as they are now.

We were pleased to have a call on Tuesday from Hon. Ira. E. Robinson, Republican candidate for Governor, who Mr. Ferguson, a newspaper man of Wheeling, and Hon. John O. Henson, of Martinsburg. Judge Robinson was circulating among the voters in this continuation. was in Shepherdstown in company with culating among the voters in this section and delivered a speech in Charles Town Tuesday night. He is sanguine of his election and claims that he will carry the State by 20,000 plurality. Of this, however, as much as we love him, "we ha'e our doots."

Mrs. Myra Show Green, formerly of Shepherdstown, who has lived in Los Angeles, California, for the past thirteen years, has come East with her two The store building of G. R. Crim at daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Dorothy, and they will spend the winter in Charles Town with Dr. A. O. Albin. It is likely that they will make their home in Charles Town, as Mrs. Green has not been in good health and will prefer to remain among her kinfolk.

Messrs. John H. Lemen and Harmon L. Couchman, of Berkeley county, left last week for Crookston, Minnesota, where it is expected that settlement will be made of the estate of the late Wynkoop Lemen, brother and brother-in-law of the above named. Mr. Lemen left a considerable estate in Minnesota, and the attorney who has been in charge in Crookston is now ready, it is said, to make final settlement.

Mrs. Kate Keesecker and Miss Bettie Reesecker and Mrs. Charles J. Miller leave on Friday for Toledo, Ohio, where they will visit Mrs. C. W. Phelps and Mrs. Chas. F. Kruger. Mrs. Miller will remain about three weeks, but Mrs. Keeperles and Miss. Pattie, expect to spend secker and Miss Bettie expect to spend the winter there with their relatives. We hope that they may all have a safe and pleasant journey.

We were pleased to have a call last Monday from Mr. George W. Summers, the well-known West Virginia newspapaper correspondent in Washington, who was making an automobile trip from that city to Charleston. Mr. Summers was delighted with his trip through this section of the State, where our great apple orchards are now so beautiful in their rich fruition.

Mrs. Mollie Folk and Miss Sarah Folk left the first of the week for Huntington, where they have been attending the meeting of the State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Folk is the representative of the Shepherdstown chapter.

confined to his home in this place the past week by an infected foot, which has given him a good deal of annoyance. The trouble seems to have started from something like an old-tashioned stone

Mr. Geo. M. Beltzhoover has been

Mrs. Thomas F. Jones, of Billmyer's daughter, Mrs. A. E. Craig. Dr. and Mrs. Craig brought her home in their automobile last Saturday and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

Hon. George M. Bowers, of Martinsburg, Member of Congress from this district and candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket, was in Shepherds-town on Tuesday and favored the Register

Mrs. Don M. Carr, of Seattle, Wash-

stigton, formerly Miss Agnes Beltzhoover, Shepherdstown, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Beltz-Her friends here are glad to see Mrs. George Licklider has arrived here rom Mountain Lake Park, where she pent the latter part of the summer, and with the family of Mr. Wm. C. Link, iear town.

Mrs. Ella Billmyer has gone to Ham-burg, Pa., where she expects to spend the winter with her son-in-law and laughter, Rev. and Mrs. Chas. F. Free-

Mr. and Mrs. John W. James, of Washington, and Miss Louise Show, of Baltinore, visited Mrs. Fannie Show in Shepherdstown the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Phillips have closed their house west of town and have moved to the Hotel Rumsey, where they expect to remain for some time.

Miss Eleanor Crowl, night telephone operator at the Shepherdstown exchange, has been quite sick the past week at her home on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. C. Franklin Lyne left vesterday for a visit of a couple of weeks with friends and relatives in Carlisle and Mrs. A. W. Finly, who has been in Shepherdstown for several months at her old home, leaves tomorrow for her home Miss Corinne Rogers has gone to Hinton, W. Va., where she will spend some weeks visiting Mrs. Walter Fredeking. Mrs. R. L. Wysong, who has been vis-iting in Washington for some time past, has returned to her home at Duffields.

Mr. Vaughan Bowly, of Hartford, Conn., formerly of Shepherdstown, spent a day or two here the past week. Miss May Triggs, of Berkeley county, was among the callers at the Register of-fice on Monday last.

Mrs. Henry C. Marten has been on the sick list the past week.

Whiskey Destroys Mother and Son. A very distressing tragedy occurred last Saturday night at Point of Rocks, Maryland, and again a fearful indictment is laid against the liquor saloon for the death of a loving mother who sacrificed her own life in a vain attempt to save a wayward son. Thomas Keith, the seveneen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Keith, was found by his mother so intoxicated that he was unable to take care of himself. Mrs. Keith and her two daughters, Sadie, aged 14 years, and Ethel, aged 10, tried to get the young man home, but he was too drunk to be He persisted in lying down along the edge of the canal, and apparently was in a stupor when he fell upon the ground. While his two sisters watched by his side, Mrs. Keith began to gather wood to build a fire. It was during the absence of the mother that Keith rose mother ran to the side of the canal, and and the terrified girls screamed for help. It was almost midnight when the tragedy occurred, but a little crowd soon gathered and search was made for the bodies. The body of the youth was found at 2 a. The Sharpsburg Temperance League has been organized and is actively at work with plane that it is board will make Forrest J. and J. William Buckles have sold to J. Strider Moler, of Bakerton, their farm of 155 acres near Uvilla, which they purchased a few years ago from John F. Melvin. The place has upon it a rection of Prof. J. D. Muldoon, will furnish the music. Great interest is being manifested in the temperance cause by the people of the Sharpsburg neighborhood, and they have strong hopes that they will be relieved of the evil of the open saloon.

John F. Melvin. The place has upon it a large that the cous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

This is an excellent farm, and Mr. Moler will improve it and bring it to a high state of cultivation. The price paid is said to have been $100 an acre.

As W. Washington Street,

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Death's Call Comes to Many. Mr. George W. Marlow, one of Jeffer-son county's best known and most pop-ular residents, died last Friday morning at his home near Mechanicstown, aged 76 years. Mr. Marlow was a man of great strength and vigor until a few years ago, when his health failed and he becounty of McDowell for a number of years, but he has retained his old-time Jeffersonian Democracy and is still enthusiastic in his political beliefs. He says that there in his political beliefs. He says that there in this section exercised a greater personal influence with the voters than he did. Although modest and unassuming, when whole Democratic State ticket. He says that there is a revolt against Judge Robinson and that the laboring men are not going to support Mr. Hughes. He declares that the Democrats of that section of the State have never been as been set to the section of the State have never been as been set to the section of the State have never been as been set to the set to t was inspired by his charitable heart. His neighbors can testify to his goodness and thoughtfulness, and his friends will mourn county, Va., and was born August 25, 1840. Before he had attained his majority he enlisted in the Confederate army located in Jefferson county, where he be-came a very successful farmer, owning a large body of fine land. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Katherine Urton, and by two daughters, Misses Mary and Nannie Marlow. He was buried in Edge Hill Cemetery, Charles Town, on Monday.

Mrs. Nancy Ella Sisler, wife of Mr. Abram Sisler, died Tuesday morning at her home in Shepherdstown, in the 65th year of her age. She had been in failing health for the past year, and had suffered much, though at the last she passed away peacefully and quietly in the hope of a blessed resurrection. Mrs. Sisler, whose maiden name was Wade, was born at Tilghmanton, Md., but had lived in Shepherdstown for many years. She was a kind-hearted woman-a loving mother and a devoted wife, and will be greatly missed. She is survived by her at any time. - Advocate. husband and the following children: C W. Sisler, of Fort Slocum, N. Y.; George T. Sisler, of Ohio; Abram L. Sisler, of South Carolina; Mrs. J. L. McChan, of Washington; Mrs. W. A. England, of Arkansas; Mrs. Jonathan Butts of Hagerstown; and Mrs. Wm. B. Rutherford, of Shepherdstown. The funeral service will be held in the Southern Methodist Church in this place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mr. Lawrence Byers, who had been ill for a long time, died from paralysis last Thursday morning at the King's Daughters' Hospital in Martinsburg, aged 56 years. Mr. Byers, who was a son of the late Wm. H. and Sarah Byers, was born near Shepherdstown and was a farmer by occupation. For a number of years past, however, he had lived in Martinsburg, and had not been in good health. He was a man of many excellent traits of character, and his old friends in this section will mourn him. He is survived by his wife, one son, James Byers, and three daughters, Pauline, Sarah and Carrie; two brothers, J. Chalmers, near Shep-herdstown, and George W., of Pawnee, Illinois; and a sister, Mrs. Annie Williams, of Berkeley Station. He was buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Shepherdstown, last Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Higginbotham, wife of Col. S. H. Higginbotham, died last Thursday afternoon at her home, "Wheatland," near Ripon, this county, aged 73 years. She had been ill for a long time, but bore her suffering with patience and resignation. Mill, has been in Washington visiting her | She was highly regarded and her death saddens many relatives and friends. The deceased, whose maiden name was Mila native of Zanesville, Ohio, Besides her husband, she is survived by wo sons and a daughter.

Jacob Henry Wild, for many years a well-known baker and confectioner of Martinsburg, died at his home in that place last Monday night, after a brief illness from pneumonia. A year ago he had suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Wild, who was 76 years of age, married Miss Vannette Yontz, of Shepherdstown, who died six years ago. Two sons survive him, Thomas R. Wild, of Martinsburg, and Edward S. Wild, of Washing-

Miss Elsie Wilson, daughter of Lewis Wilson, living near the Bloomery, in this county, died last week from typhoid fever in the Charles Town hospital. Two other daughters of Mr. Wilson are ill from the same disease at their home.

Notes of the Churches. Rev. Charles Ghiselin, Jr., who has been appointed a missionary to China of the Southern Presbyterian Church, will sail from Vancouver, B. C., on the Canadian - Pacific steamship Monteagle next Monday. He left his home here September 8th, and has visited his brother Morrison in Kentucky, and also friends in Montana, and in Alberta, Canada, and in Washington State, where for several summers he has been doing home missionary work. He has been assigned to the North Kiangsu Mission, which is north of the Yangtse River and along the Grand Canal. After his arrival there he will be sent to the particular station where he is most needed.

Rev. Dr. E. C. Cronk, of Columbia, S. C., general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the United Synod of the South, will be in Shepherdstown next week. He will attend a meeting of the men of the church to be held on Friday evening, October 13th, and will deliver an address in the Lutheran Church on Sunday, the 15th, at 11 a. m. Dr. Cronk is one of the prominent workers in the United Synod, and everybody

s invited to hear him. A revival service will be commenced Sunday night in the Southern Methodist Church at Charles Town, of which Rev. F. A. Tyler is pastor. Rev. Absalom Knox, of Shepherdstown, will preach for him next week.

M. E. Church—Preaching Sunday in Shepherdstown at 11 a. m., and Epworth League at 6 p. m. Preaching at Mt. Wesley at 7 p. m., followed by special protracted service during the ensuing week. M. E. Church South-Preaching by the pastor in Shepherdstown at 11 a. m., and at Marvin Chapel at 3 p. m. Union service in the college auditorium at night.

There will be services in Elk Branch Church Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 7.30 p. m. Song service at 7 p. m. Also in Zion Presbyterian Church at 3 p. m. There will be services in the Presbyterian Church Sunday, if Providence permits, in Shepherdstown at 11.00 a. m. and at Kearneysville at 3.00 p. m.

Lutheran-Service Sunday at Uvilla at 1 a. m. No service at night on account of Bible Society meeting. Reformed Church-Holy communion on Sunday at 11 a.m., preparatory service Saturday at 3 p. m.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deatness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous ining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mu-

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ben-nett, Duffields, Tuesday evening, Sep-tember 26th, when Mr. Marshall Jarvis and Miss Clara I. Weller were united in marriage by Rev. J. C. Siler. The bridal couple were attended by Misses Anna and Hester Bennett, sisters of the groom, and Miss Alleen Manuel, a cousin of the groom. The bride wore a beautiful dress of blue taffeta. Mrs. J. C. Tabler rendered the wedding march. The house was decorated with greens and autumn Although modest and unassuming, when he put his personality into a cause it could aspect. After the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining-room, where refreshments were served. About sevenheart and most tender affections, and his friendship was well worth having. It is received many handsome presents. The said of him that no deserving person ever asked of him a favor that was not granted, and the bride is one of Shenandoah Juncasked of him a favor that was not granted, and the bride is one of Shenandoah Juncand those who knew him could tell of many a generous and kindly deed that couple will reside at Shenandoah Junction. Their many friends join in best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Mr. Peter Frederick Snyder, of Kelso, Washington, and Miss Ruth Freeman, of Washington, D. C., were married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Central Presbyterian Church. Mr. Wm. B. Snyder, of Shepherdstown, a cousin of the groom, was best man. The groom is private secretary for Congressman Albert Johnson, of the State of Washington, and has occasionally visited his relatives in Shepherdstown.

Mr. Clyde Raymond Cook and Miss Pansy Watters, both of this county, were married last Wednesday evening in Charles Town at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Watters. Rev. F. A. Tyler performed the ceremony.

Hydrophobia In the County.

William M. Burns lost a hog weighing nearly 200 pounds last week, from hydrophobia. The hog was bitten about two weeks ago by a mad dog, which on the same day attacked Littleton Brown, who lives on Mr. Burns' place. The man detended himself with a club. The hog that had been bitten attacked several other hogs on the place, and Mr. Burns expects hydrophobia to develop in them

Last Saturday one of Mr. Burns's horses was tound to be suffering from hydrophobia, and as there is positively no hope of recovery when once the disease appears, it had to be shot and killed. Several other horses were bitten and will be watched for developments. The State Board of Agriculture, through Dr. W. M. Stanley, State Veterinarian for this county, has established a quarantine against dogs running at large within five miles of the intected area.

Jurors For October Court.

C. D. Wysong, jury commissioner, and . Frank Turner, acting jury commissioner, have drawn the following petit jury, to appear October 24, the second Tuesday of the October term of the Circuit Court : R. L. Macoughtry, R. J. Madison, E. D. Conklyn, J. W. Pope, G. W. Fry, F. C. Larue, R. D. Moore, H. A. Lockhart, J. Edward Ware, W. A. Fulk, Olin Knott, W. G. Bates, Isaac W. Miller, C. E. Blue, D. L. Moler, K. K. Cavalier, E. B. Van-Metre, L. E. Grove, C. E. Grantham, Jno. H. Marlowe, John M. Boyd, Jno. L. Burns, N. C. Rider, J. A. Link, Jr., G. W. Hoffman, J. A. Flannagan, T. H. Mauzy, W. T. Irwin, S. O. Knott, C. P. Brown, Adam Kidwiler, B. F. Echols, R. A. Hammond and D. W. Ramey.

NOTICE.

REGULAR TERM, AUGUST, 1916. State of West Virginia,
County of Jefferson, Sct.:
At a regular term of the County Court of said County and State continued and held at the CourtHouse thereof on Wednesday, August 23rd, 1916, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M.
Present, N. R. Roberts, President, C. H. Moore,
C. D. Wysong, Daniel Hellebower and M. S. R.
Moler, Commissioners. Ordered, that at the general election to be held is Jefferson County, in November, 1916, the question of laying a special levy of 15 cents on the one hun-dred dollars for road purposes in Shepherdstown. District be submitted to the voters of said district, as provided in Chapter 28 A, Section 6, Code of West Urginia 1915.

Virginia, 1916. (Signed) N. R. ROBERTS, President. A Copy Teste:
CHAS. A. JOHNSON,
Clerk of County Court of Jefferson County, W. Va.

The Paramount Theatre Using Nothing But Paramount Photoplays Paramount Music

TONIGHT

Each customer will receive a cur-

ent copy of "Picture Progress." The Inimitable JOHN BARRYMORE

"THE DICTATOR" Richard Harding Davis celebrated adventurous romance. We cannot too strongly urge you to see this irresistible film version of this melomatic comedy. Admission, 5 and 10 cents

Friday, October 6 BEATRICE FAIRFAX

International News Current Events KRAZY KAT Animated Cartoon

Admission, 5c and 10c Saturday, October 7 ROBERT EDESON

FATHERS OF MEN" A story that ends as all stories Admission, 5c and 10c

Monday, October 9 LILLIAN WALKER Hearts And Highway" A story of love, in which plots counterplots and intrigues abound in breath-catching number. Admission 5 and 10 cents Tuesday, October 10

MYRTLE STEDMAN "WILD OLIVE" A Fascinating Love Story

Admission, 5c and 10c

Wednesday, October 11 Special Program Matinee and Night SOUTH AMERICAN TRAVEL PICTURES

SHARPSBURG NEWS.

Allen Poffenberger, assistant principal n the schools of this place, has been appointed postmaster for this town. He has been taking instructions from ex-postmaster J. Lester Otto, who will leave for Ohio as soon as Mr Poffenberger receives his commission. It is reported that Mr. Hutzel, of Boonsboro, who has been teaching at Antietam Iron Works school, will fill Mr. Poffenberger's place in the school here. Quite a number of the farmers are busy now putting in their wheat crop. The recent rains have made the ground in fine condition for seeding.

Mr. Liebman, who married Miss Fannie

Poffenberger, died in Washington a few days ago, aged 39 years. The remains were brought to Mountain View Cemetery for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Liebman recently returned from Germany after visiting his former home. For the betterment of his trouble, tuberculosis, he spent some time during the past summer with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Crow. A number of hogs have been sick for different persons similar to hog cholera. They refuse to eat for about a week and

They refuse to eat for about a week and then get better. None have died for any one.

The route being surveyed by the surveying corps goes right through William Rowe's residence at the Snyder Landing. All we know is a corps of surveyors at work along here for some time, but can't learn what kind of a road it is to be.

Fred Crowl, of Philadelphia, youngest son of Charles Crowl, deceased, was in our town on Monday with his brand new 16-year-old wife on their honeymoon.

Third Tracet The Billmyer, deceased, by two deeds: one from D. C. Hill, et al., dated the 12th day of October, 1856, and recorded in the aforesaid Clerk's office in Deed Book No. 7, page 67. This is that part of the "Reynolds" farm which lies northeast of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right-of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way of the Cherry Run and Potomac of the right of-way 6-year-old wife on their honeymoon They were traveling in a motorcycle with side car. Mr. Crowl is now employed as a machinist in Philadelphia. Sharpsburg was ironclad Sunday in regard to buying anything out of the confectionery stores, nothing being sold by in order of the court. The punch-boards especially were debarred. This is the first time in the history of the town that nothing could be bought on Sunday, and was a great disappointment to many. Gasoline, oil and papers were sold. Services were held in the old Dunkard Church on the battlefield the past Sunday by Rev. Roland Reichard. Mr and Mrs. Charles Kearney returned o their home in Washington on Tuesday of this week, after spending a month with Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond at the little mill near town. John Grayson took them down in their Ford car. Wm. Rowe has his new barn about ready for the roof. Wm. Cook is doing the work. Mr. Rowe will have a very convenient and nice little barn when com-Mrs. Thomas Crampton, of Antietam Iron Works, was seriously ill with acute indigestion the early part of the week. Her son John is down with typhoid fever. Wm. F. Blackford picked last Saturday about five bushels of green lima beans and said he wasn't half done. He has a ate patch that hasn't ripened yet. Mrs. Samuel Spong was brought up from Washington by a physician in his automobile. She stood the trip well and s improving nicely.

Special Commissioners' Sale

Valuable Real Estate.

ore or less, being the same real estate which was onveyed to David Billmyer, deceased, by deed om John J. Vansant, Trustee, dated the 26th day I December, 1878, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Jefferson County, West Virginia, in Deed Book "G," page 120. This farm is situate about one mile north of Shepherds-

Second Tract-The "Reynolds"

Farm, Containing 219 Acres,

Third Tract-The "Orndorff"

Farm, Containing 327 Acres,

more or less, being the same real estate which was conveyed to David Billmyer, deceased, in several deeds as follows: Two deeds from E.1. Lee and H. Blackburn, Special Commissioners, one dated January 15.1874, and the other dated April 10.1874, and one from William Orndorff and Elizabeth A. Orndorff, his wife, dated April 24th, 1874, and recorded respectively in the aforesaid Clerk's office in Deed Book "A," page 429, Deed Book "A," page 514, and Deed Book "B," pages 30 and 32, to which said deeds reference is hereby made for a more complete description of the aforesaid real estate. This farm at the present time comprises a few acres of what is known as the "Willow-Dale" farm. This farm is situate one mile north of Shepherdstown, near the Shepherd pike, and borders on the Potomac River.

near the Shepherd pike, and borders on the Poto-mac River.

Possession of all of the aforesaid land will be given on day of sale, subject to tenant's rights of possession and share of crops.

The acreage in these farms is to be established by survey, the cost of which is to be borne by the seller and purchaser jointly.

TERMS—One-third of the purchase price cash in hand on day of sale. The residue in two equal annual payments due in one and two years respectively; the purchaser to give his notes therefor with interest from date, payable annually. Title to be retained until all of the purchase money has been paid.

Ellen B. Grove and R. C. Grove, VS.
W. H. Billmyer, et al.
This is to certify that Charles E. Williams, as Special Commissioner, has executed bond in the above-named cause, as required by decree in said cause. Attest:

Largest bar of pure Castile soap a

A. M. A. M. P. M. P. M.

8,50 9.10 2.30 7.30 5

9.30 4.00 4.30 10.30

10.00

Sharpsburg 10.30 4.40 5.30 11.30

All cars arrive and depart at Public Square, Hagerstown.

Car arrives and departs at Rumsey Hotel, Shepherdstown.

REAL SHOES

The kinp with the snap to them. The man who wearsordinary shoesnever feels dressed. Let him get acquainted with our distinguished lasts in Cordovan, Koko,

Cordo and Black Velvet Finished Calf.

They wear long, look well all the time

Experienced fitters

in attendance at all

BENTZ & DUNN,

The House of Shoes

The Autumn Modes

The Latest Inspirations

of distinctiveness and originality as our present collection.

The largest ever shown by any one house in this city.

BURHANS, MILLINERY,

43 W. Washington Street,

No collection of hats has ever attained such a high degree and cost but a trifle more.

Hagerstown,

Prices refreshingly moderate.

4.55 10.55

5.00 11.00

5.15 11.15

Shepherdstown-Hagerstown Auto Bus

H. A. LINE, Manager

Effective 12.01 A. M. Sunday, October 8th, 1916

Tilghmanton

Keedysville

Arrive Hagerstown

Arrive Shepherdstown

Keedysville 8.05

Boonsboro 8.20

GEO. M. BELTZHOOVER, CHAS. E. WILLIAMS, Special Commissioners.

C. W. CONRAD, Clerk.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, West Virginia, made and entered on the 110th day of December, 1913, in the chancery cause of Ellen B. Grove and R. C. Grove against W. H. Billmyer and others, the undersigned Special Commissioners will, on REGISTERED CLERKS in attendance all the time. Night

Largest line of Pyralin Ware in all colors. Toilet Articles, Saturday, October 14, 1916, best assortment to select from-in fact, no matter what it is, we at the front door of the Hotel Rumsey in Shep-herdstown, West Virginia, at 1.30 o clock in the af-ternoon of that day, offer for sale, to the highest bidder, the following described real estate: have it. If not, let us get it for you. Don't forget, your drug

KRESO DIP HEADQUARTERS.

OWENS & MILLER

Most Up-to-date Drug Store in the County.

Will have his fall opening at the Hotel Rumsey

IN SHEPHERDSTOWN

Thursday, October 12th.

Ladies' Suits and Coats

Coats From $5.75 Up.

Big Fall Festival

Business Men of Charles Town and Ranson, W. Va. ON THE STREETS

October 26 and 27, 1916

AUTOMOBILE PARADE Cash Prizes for Best Decorated Autos, The Farm Pro-

Open to the world, cash prizes for best original costumes

Remember Everything Positively

TO ATTEND THE

AT HAGERSTOWN October 10th to 13th, inclusive

MARYLAND'S LARGEST FAIR

A embodying displays of the products of the Farm, Factory, Racing purse, $7,000. Poultry Show largest on earth. Corn Show second to none. Cattle, Horses, Sheep; Swine-

THOS. A. POFFENBERGER, President. D. H. STALEY, Secretary.

OCTOBER 17, 18, 19, 20, 1916

and Pedestrians.

Balloon Ascensions and Parachute Drops

Special Trains and Reduced Fares on All Railroads.

First Tract-The "Etchinson" Best and largest assortment of Drugs, Toilet Requisites, Etc. Farm, Containing About 123 Acres, Wholesale and Retail. Delivery Everywhere. Mail Orders Solicited. Phone Jeff. 15k. Night call 35k.

Suits From $12.00 Up.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO COME.

Held under the auspices of the

Thursday and Friday

A Celebration - A Recreation A Vacation

FREE FREE FIREWORKS BAND CONCERTS BIG FREE VAUDEVILLE ATTRACTIONS

ducts of old Jefferson County Exhibited on the Streets of the Town-Big Public School Exhibits-Many Prizes

The festival to close on Friday Night, Oct. 27, with the

BIG MASK CARNIVAL

BE PREPARED

Great Inter-State Fair

Wonderful demonstration of the resources of our country, more than at any other Eastern Fair. Educational, interesting, amusing. BRILLIANT FIREWORKS AT NIGHT

GREAT FREDERICK FAIR

Grounds Enlarged and Improved. New Subway Under Track for Automobiles

BIG FREE VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM

Interesting Midway, Harness and Running Races

M. E. KEFAUVER, President. O. E. WAREHIME, Secretary.

PAY A VISIT TO Owens & Miller's Drug Store

C. R. Owens and W. B. Miller, Registered Pharmacists.

E. ARNER

ALL DAY AND EVENING

Ready-to-wear. Will also make suits to order